ANNOUNCEMENTS

Wigwam.

The annual festival of the Mohegan Sewing society will be held next Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 1 and 2. The usual choice line of baskets, aprons and fancy articles will be on sale, also cake, candy and ice cream, and that delicious succotash and yokeag for which this society is noted.

Japanese Invasion at the Putnam Fair.

Much praise has been given to the Japanese and to her famous soldiers. Great interest centers around their country, costumes and armaments. At the Putnam fair, Sept. 1 and 2, full opportunity will be given to study the Japanese at close quarters, as the greatest troupe of entertainers ever brought to this country have been secured, and the wonderful acrobatic and equilibristic feats presented are simply marvelous.

The Kadura Imperial Japanese troupe numbers ten and is the greatest that have been in America less than two years, during which time they have appeared in almost every large city, besides being engaged at the New York hippodrome last season for nearly twelve weeks. Their costumes show the splendor of the Orient and their work is of high character. Nothing like their work has ever been witnessed in this country, and they are sure to be a big sensation.

Many of the tricks and feats they will perform are entirely new in this country. In pyramid work they never have been excelled. The remarkable feats that they perform in this class of work have heretofore only been seen among the greatest and most skilled of Arabian acrobatic troupes. Double slack wire acts, double perch acts, "risky work" their slide for life while standing erect on a rope and many other remarkable feats make the greatest performing troupe ever brought to this country. If you miss this feature you will miss one of the greatest attractions ever brought to a fair in eastern Connecticut. See advt. today for other big attractions.

THE AUDITORIUM.

The bills announcing the reopening of the Auditorium have caused much favorable comment and no doubt the opening performance Monday afternoon, August 30, will please to draw a large number of the old patrons as well as many new ones. It is the intention of the management in the course of a few weeks to change the entire vaudeville section of the programme twice weekly, Monday and Thursday. This will of course necessitate considerable added expense, but the management feels confident that the increase in attendance will recompense them. In this way patrons visiting the theater Monday and Thursday of the same week will see two entirely different shows.

It was the intention of the management to open the season in this way, but it was impossible to complete the necessary arrangements in time. The vaudeville programme headed by the Wally Trio, a newly imported European acrobatic act, contains a great variety of numbers in which will be found some of the greatest body. This trio of European gymnasts introduce some remarkably clever head and hand balancing intermingled with snappy comic tumbling.

Merrill and Norton present a neat singing and dancing specialty in which the sweet singing of the lady and the eccentric dancing of the gentleman are particularly conspicuous. A howling comedy number introduced by the "musical mokes," Robinson and Gaten, will no doubt be one of the hits of the show. This pair of versatile "burnt corkers" are musicians of exceptional merit and are comedians of the first rank.

Nan Evans, a sprightly character comedienne, will introduce the latest comedy song hits, sung in her own inimitable manner.

Last but not least on the bill we will have "The Lady with the Big Voice," Jennie Edwards, whose picture was made promise to become a pleasing and permanent feature of the entertainment.

BROADWAY THEATER.

"Dolly Varden."

Mr. H. D. Allen offers the comic opera success, "Dolly Varden," with the bewitching prima donna soubrette, Miss Adaline Fildes, which will be the attraction at the Broadway Theater on Friday, Aug. 27th. "Dolly Varden" will be remembered as being the biggest comic opera success known on Broadway for years. It served as the vehicle which brought Miss Lulu Glaser to her present position. Miss Adaline Fildes headed by the peerless beauty chorus, all of which are beautiful and attractive young women. "Dolly Varden" is the joint work of those masters of comic opera, Messrs. Stanislus Stange and Julian Edwards. Its reputation is a guarantee of merit and originality. The scenery is rich and warm in color and style, the costuming is in perfect harmony and the soft blending of electric effects give the whole an unusual charm. There is beauty and tone to "Dolly Varden." No expense has been spared in equipping and staging the piece. The company is headed by the prima donna soubrette, Miss Adaline Fildes, who comes stamped with the approval of the press and public. She has an exquisite voice and an abundance of magnetism, with a beautiful figure, which adds charm to her charming personality. Other members are Alden MacClaskie, last season with Miss Hattie Williams in "Fluffy Ruffles," R. L. Koch, who was formerly connected with Henry W. Savage's "Prince of Pilsen," Miss Helen Murray, who will be remembered as the leading soprano with Chas. Dillingham's musical comedy success, "The Red Mill," and Alf Helton, who has been connected in former years with Cohen and Harris, and William Rothacker, who has appeared at the Metropolitan Opera house with the Metropolitan company.

—On Building a Small Business with little Money

Many a so-called "hole in the wall" has later cropped out into space as a sky scraper. Push, courage, economy, advertising—that's the secret. Our little Want Ads tell many such stories. Better advertise in a small way than not at all. A few pennies will start you on our Classified page. But start and keep it up.

Read and Answer Today's Want Ads.

BREED THEATER.

"Soldiers of the U. S. A." Feature Picture.

Another crowded house at the Breed was the state of affairs, when the very excellent bill was shown, and although the weather was intensely warm, the many provisions for the cooling of the theater prevented it from being uncomfortable. Added to the fact that the Breed is one of the highest theaters, between joints, in the city, is the fact that the great windows running from floor to ceiling, admit a free circulation of fresh air from the river, and the great ventilators on the roof, are carrying off immense quantities of heated air, besides numerous electric fans that are running continually, making this theater a most comfortable spot.

The great picture "Soldiers of the U. S. A." shows how our boys in blue are trained from the raw recruit, to the tried veteran. The scene of the drilling of the raw recruits in the awkward squad is one of the most ludicrous scenes ever witnessed, and the spectators fairly howl. This is very perfect in the photographic sense and the many scenes are greeted with continued applause.

There are many other excellent pictures shown all worthy of mention, and the large attendance attests the fact of the high standard of the entertainment.

By popular request, Master Harry Noonan sang "As Long as the World Rolls On," a song of great artistic demands, and rendered it so well that he was compelled to repeat the refrain three and four times. His ability in this line seems unlimited.

LINCOLN PARK.

Candles, Bombs and Rockets All Right.

More than 200 red, blue and green Roman candles, interspersed with a large number of beautiful bombs and a quantity of rockets that went very high and straight, preceded last night's performance at Lincoln park. The fireworks did not lack a large and appreciative audience, for the 7:30 car took down a crowd and the 7:45, running free, landed standing-room-only crowds at the park station at 8:05, two minutes after the first brace of candles and the first rocket had been sent off, following the introductory blaze of red fire along the margin of the pond below the park.

The display ended at 8:18 and two minutes later Rustic theater was filled and the evening performance got under way on time. As usual, Hamilton and Howlett made much fun out of "Reuben Haskins." Miss Elmer sang three times and was generously applauded for each effort of her sweet, pure and sympathetic voice. Billy Barlow and Lillian Franklin in "Bite from Here and There" were exceedingly humorous and likeable entertainers. Nat Gill's ventriloquism interested as well as amused and Stirk and London in their bicycle riding, tumbling, handspinning and blindfolded jumping, delighted the crowd thoroughly. Every act of the five is a treat and the patrons of this week have not conceded their appreciation of the entire bill.

There was plenty of dancing in the pavilion after the show. The waltzers held the floor until 11.

The Sunday afternoon free concert will be held at 3:20.

The Chinese government has decided to stop the export of soy beans from Manchuria to all except China ports. In the last few years this trade has grown to enormous proportions and is every day becoming more important. If the present report is true, the effect upon certain lines of commerce which have recently grown up at Dainy (Dairen) would be little short of disastrous. The effect upon the local industry in Manchuria would undoubtedly be great, as it would result in the conversion of the beans into cake on the spot.
